NUTRITIONAL SUPPORT TO CHILDREN

SERVING BETTER LIFE TO MANKIND THROUGH EMPOWERMENT

15.06.2022 | BENGALURU | KARNATAKA STATE

Health and development depend heavily on nutrition. Stronger immune systems, a reduced risk of non-communicable diseases, and longer lifespans are all associated with better nutrition. Children who are healthy could learn better and are more productive, may open the doors to end hunger and poverty. The World Health Organization (WHO) examines the hazards caused by all types of malnutrition and the possible responses that the health system may make both directly and through its effect on other sectors.

In line with the WHO's evaluation, Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust, Chennai had responded to a request for assistance from Madilu Seva Ashram in Bengaluru, Karnataka, which needed money to provide food for its 26 children. The financial assistance of an alumnus of Madras Veterinary College from abroad (name undisclosed as per request) along with the contribution of Dr.N.Elangovan, member of HVCT made it possible to extend the gesture to Madilu Seva Ashram in Bengaluru.

Mrs.E.Saraswathi Elangovan, Head, Imports & Regulatory, Timo Eva Wellness Pvt.Ltd., Bengaluru, presenting a cheque to the Ashram caretaker.

Accordingly, on 15.6.2022, a cheque was given to the care-takers of Madilu Seva Ashram on behalf of Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust to feed the children two days in a month for six months.

We acknowledge Dr. N. Elangovan and our senior veterinarian from overseas for their quick assistance in helping Ashram Children receive proper nourishment. The programme was co-ordinated by Dr.N Elangovan and our gratitude to his team from Iris Life Solutions Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru. We extend our gratitude to the Board of Trustees, HVCT for approving this project along with sanctioning an amount from the Trust's fund to support this noble cause.
