EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE TO A SCHOOL STUDENT PHASE - 4

PROJECT No. 93 03.02.2024 | CHENNAI

Members of Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust, Chennai with Dr.R.Prabakaran, Former Vice-Chancellor of TANUVAS

The myriad responsibilities of a single parent encompass financial management, household chores, and the nurturing of their children. Managing these priorities often demands multitasking and a heightened level of dedication to ensure the well-being and education of the children.

Educational Assistance Programme of Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust Chennai

Educational assistance enhances access to learning, fostering skill development and knowledge acquisition. It empowers individuals, promoting personal and professional growth. By reducing financial barriers, it cultivates a more educated and skilled workforce, ultimately contributing to societal progress and economic prosperity.

Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust provided educational assistance through 18 projects by the support of various donors and we express our gratitude to them.

Financial constraints faced by a lone parent can precipitate negative emotions in their children, leading to feelings of distress, anxiety, or even aggression over time.

Mrs. N. Usha, a single mother residing in Chennai, had reached out to Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust (HVCT) seeking educational assistance for her son due to her limited income two years ago. Following thorough assessment by HVCT, financial aid was extended to Master N. Alagiri, son of Mrs. Usha twice in the year 2022 and once in 2023. However, persistent financial challenges prompted them to seek assistance from HVCT for the fourth time. By considering the situation of the student and in accordance with the decisions made, educational assistance was provided to Master N. Alagiri on February 3rd, 2024, during the prestigious TANUVAS Alumni meet held at Madras Veterinary College.

In alignment with this decision, Dr.R.Prabakaran, Former Vice-Chancellor of Tamil Nadu Veterinary and Animal Sciences University, Chennai, presented the educational assistance cheque on behalf of Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust, and we extend our heartfelt gratitude to him.
