Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust (HVCT), Chennai, is dedicated to support students facing severe financial hardships. Identifying genuine beneficiaries is challenging but is effectively managed with the help of well-wishers from various organizations. Since 2015, HVCT has funded the education of 29 students through 25 educational assistance programmes, including eight students from Tamil Nadu Veterinary & Animal Sciences University, Chennai.

In this line, HVCT supported the education of a financially and physically challenged I year B.V.Sc. & A.H. student Mr.A.Athisayaraj on 22.02.2025 at Veterinary College & Research Institute, Salem.

On behalf of Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust, the cheque was presented to Mr. A. Athisayaraj on 22.02.2025 by Dr.A.Elango, Dean of the Veterinary College & Research Institute, Salem in his office.

Dr.A.Elango, Dean, VC&RI, Salem handed over the cheque to the beneficiary student. Dr.S.Vigil Anbiah, Secretary, HVCT, Dr.M.Samuel Rajkumar, Member, HVCT & parents of Mr.A.Athisayaraj are nearby.

Dr.A.Elango greeted and motivated the student for his career and in turn, the parents conveyed their gratitude to HVCT.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Dr.A.Elango, Dean, VC&RI, Salem for spending his valuable time and for handing over the cheque to the student.

We thank the following faculty members of the Veterinary College & Research Institute, Salem, for their invaluable support, guidance, and participation: Dr.C.Theophilus Anand Kumar, Professor & Head, Department of Veterinary Pathology, and EC member of HVCT; Dr.P.Veeramani, Professor & Head, Livestock Farm Complex; and Dr.K. Arunachalam, Professor & Head, Department of Veterinary Parasitology. Their unwavering support and mentorship have been instrumental in this initiative. especially Dr.P.Veeramani for identifying the beneficiary.

We extend our sincere gratitude to the following officials from the Department of Animal Husbandry, Government of Tamil Nadu, for their participation in the event:

Dr.N.Bharathy, Regional Joint Director, Salem; Dr.R.S.D.Babu, Assistant Director, Animal Disease Investigation Unit, Salem; Dr.Selvakumar, Assistant Director, Attur; Dr.D.Baranidaran, Clinician, Veterinary Poly-Clinic, Salem; Dr.S.Sumathi, Assistant Director, Sankagiri; Dr.N.Mahatma, Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, Veterinary Dispensary, Kallanatham, Salem; and Dr.Ramar, Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, Veterinary Dispensary, Unathur, Salem. We are grateful for their presence and support.

We sincerely thank Dr. S. Vigil Anbiah, Secretary, HVCT, for his valuable presence, support, and guidance. We also deeply appreciate the participation of Dr. M. Samuel Rajkumar, Dr. M. Murugesan, Dr. Murugu, Mrs. A. Deepa, and Mrs. D. Jasmine Rajini.

Mr.A.Athisayaraj, I B.V.Sc. & A.H. student of VC & RI, Salem facing financial and physical challenges had received full educational and mess fee support from an anonymous philanthropic member of HVCT.

The first-year fees were refunded on 22.2.2025, and future payments will be directly transferred to the account of VC & RI, Salem. HVCT expresses gratitude to the donor for this generous sponsorship.

We are also deeply grateful to the Board of Trustees, HVCT for their approval, guidance, and support in executing this project.

Dr.P.Veeramani, Dr.K.Arunachalam and Dr.C.Theophilus Anand Kumar with Dr.A.Elango, Dean, VC&RI, Salem and family members of the student.

A special thanks to Dr. R. Richard Churchill for co-ordinating the program and Dr. C. Theophilus Anand Kumar for his onsite co-ordination.

Hurricane Vets Charitable Trust sincerely wishes Mr.A.Athisayaraj, a prosperous professional career and a lifetime of good health, success, and well-being in all future endeavors.
